

ESPECIAL TRANSFORMERS

We can manufacture transformers:

- Single-phase
- Three-phase
- Safety and command control transformers
- Open-air or encapsulated, with different connection modes (screw connection terminal, special terminals, electric cable …)

Phonovox has a long tradition, more than 50 years, manufacturing special transformers according to customer requirements.

We can manufacture single-phase, three-phase, safety and command control transformers, open-air or encapsulated, with different connection modes (screw connection terminal, special terminals, electric cable …)
